About the Authors

Atta Arghandiwal was born in Afghanistan but left shortly after the Soviet invasion and became a refugee in Germany. Two weeks after his arrival in the US he started work as a bank teller and built a successful 28-year career, eventually being promoted to senior vice president. He is also the author of the award-winning memoir Lost Decency: The Untold Afghan Story and lives in Northern California with his wife and two children.

Eileen Figure Sandlin is an award-winning writer and the author of 21 books. She holds a master's degree in journalism and is a professor at a major Midwest university.
