

The Self-Sufficient Global Citizen

A Guide for Responsible Families and Communities

By Atta Arghandiwal

When Atta came first arrived in Germany as a refugee and ultimate migration to America, he found that many migrants' self-help books focused on just one or a few topics, while others were so complicated that they were discouraging rather than helpful. It took a lot of time to find the information he needed. So he created a practical lifestyle guide for refugees & Immigrants—a road map for families and communities, filled with proven tips and strategies that can be used from the birth of a child to retirement and beyond.

With this easy-to-follow guide, you'll:

- Discover proven tips, strategies and motivational personal lessons from birth of a child to retirement and beyond.
- Gather hundreds of valuable resources for use from anywhere around the world
- Obtain handy, time-saving worksheets and checklists
- Find easy to understand explanations of unfamiliar terms
- Gain valuable advice from “Atta’s Lessons” so you can avoid making his mistakes.

www.attamoves.com | attamoves@gmail.com

- Publication Date: 2017
- Page Count: 412
- Trim Size: 6 x 9
- Format: Trade Paperback
- EPUB

Biography:

The Afghan-American is a former who left his native country in August of 1980 after the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan. He first arrived in Germany and eventually immigrated to the United States. Two weeks after his arrival, he started work as a bank teller and built a successful twenty-eight year career, eventually being promoted to senior vice president. He is the author of the award winning memoir Lost Decency “The Untold Afghan Story” AND Immigrant Success Planning (A Comprehensive Guide for Immigrants of North America)